THE WORLD AND CHRISTIANITY IS GENERAL THEME

Engel, Braulick, Koch, Siefkes, and Racker Speak for Chapeis.

"I sat where they sat, and remained there seventeen minutes seven days," Racker, from Eberly, 215, was the words used which Mayor Leonard Racker of Waverly based his remarks on given yesterday morning April 23. Mayor Racker made the statement "I know no other time that it is more important to see how other people do things than the present time," and "we build artificial walls about ourselves, set ourselves within a circle, and exclude the efforts of others. His closing thought was that if we would listen before we speak, know before we condemn, then there would be much less effort to build better understanding among us."

KOCH SPEAKS ON JUNE CONVENTION

Every Student Is Invited To Attend the St. Paul-Minneapolis Meet.

The National Lutheran League recently, Rev. H. E. Koch of Waverly, Ia., addressed the Wartburg student body on Thursday, April 15, in the convention hall. He extended an invitation to all to attend the convention in Minneapolis and St. Paul from June 23 to 27.

Reverend Koch stated, "The coming Lutheran youth conference is most challenging. This unprecedented conference, devoted to the Lutheran youth of America five continental years ago."

The American Lutheran church, the Norwegian Lutheran church, the United Danish church, the Lutheran Free church and the Augustan church will hold national youth conventions and there have been three days of such sessions. There ought to be inspiration in a meeting like this.

We want to make an impression on the youth of America. We will have no stone unturned to accomplish this as well as possible."

The theme of the entire conference will center about Christ Our Life. "We must learn to live"
